

INTERIOR DESIGN REGISTRATION LAWS

Updated September 2011

ASID LEGISLATIVE POLICY

ASID believes that legal recognition of our profession is best achieved through the enactment of legislation that:

01. Does not limit, restrict or prevent the practice of interior design.
02. Does not limit, restrict or prevent anyone from using the title "interior design" or "interior designer."
03. Allows state-qualified interior designers to use the title "registered," "certified" or "licensed" interior designer.
04. Allows state-qualified interior designers to perform additional services related to the practice of interior design as applicable governing jurisdictions deem appropriate for state-qualified interior designers to perform.
